Informed consent - COVID-19 mRNA vaccines

Version 10, as at: 21/10/2021

Following vaccination against COVID-19, reactions to COVID-19 mRNA vaccines often occur which usually go away on their own within a few days. Pain or swelling may occur very often at the injection site; reddening, rashes or urticaria may occur often. Moreover, (extreme) tiredness, headache, muscle and joint aches, joint stiffness, swelling in the armpits, nausea, vomiting, diarrhoea, shivering and fever may occur very often; rashes may occur often. Very often means that more than 1 in 10 vaccinated persons are affected; often means that up to 1 in 10 vaccinated persons is affected. Severe allergic reactions may occur. Myocarditis and pericarditis were reported very rarely. Strenuous physical activities should be avoided in case of exhaustion or fever. For details, please refer to the information leaflet provided electronically.

You may also request a hard copy of the information leaflet. Should you have any further questions, please get in touch with your doctor.
